TASTING NOTES:

Our 2014 Riesling was made in a Dry Style and is sourced from the Willamette Valley, with vines as old as 39 years. The vintage was stunning with hot days and warm nights through the Summer, and just enough rain; allowing the grapes to be well balanced in the vineyards, producing delightful flavors in the wine.

The wine has notes of Nutmeg and Green Apple on the nose, with scents of Fall. On the palate, there are bright flavors of Apricots & Honey, along with Lemon Curd and a balanced acidity. The Riesling is gorgeous to drink now, can be reserved for some time to allow the flavors to further integrate or even aged for the next 10 years.
